Acceptance Package	Seattle University will send out Acceptance via email and Admissions Portal (Slate) for students who complete document submission. Students can access the Acceptance Letter upon official acceptance in the Admissions Portal (Slate).
Immunization Requirement	Prior to arrival on campus or attending classes, undergraduate students are required to provide proof of immunity to measles. Find more details about immunizations here: https://www.seattleu.edu/life-at-seattle-u/health-wellness/student-health-center/immunizations/
Rejection	Please note that being nominated does not guarantee acceptance to the program. In the following cases, Seattle University reserves the right to reject/refuse applications: • Applicant fails to fully submit their online application within the given deadline • Applicant will not be able to receive their visa supporting documents in time to participate during the intended term

Academic Level
Level of Study	Undergraduate studies only
Course Load per Quarter	https://www.seattleu.edu/registrar/academic-policies/ Undergraduate: 12-18 Quarter Credits (minimum-maximum), average is 15 Quarter Credits • Undergraduate courses are generally five-credit courses. Five quarter hours is typically 50 lectures of 50 minutes each. • Seattle University's conversion rate is (but subject to each individual institution's conversion rate) ○ 1.5 Quarter Credit to 1 Semester credit (8-12 Semester credits per quarter) ○ 0.8 Quarter Credits to 1 ECTS credit (15-22.5 ECTS credits per quarter) • International students are not allowed to take more than one online course due to visa requirement

English Language Culture Bridge (ELCB) Courses	Non-native speakers who are in the ELCB range are required to participate in ELCB courses during their first quarter. https://www.seattleu.edu/ellc/english-language-and-cultural-bridge/ Those who are exempt are still able to participate as ELCB courses provide courses focused on university-level reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills.
Course Catalog	https://catalog.seattleu.edu/index.php - Most courses are taught in English, depending on the prerequisite. Students can select from a variety of courses in the 1000-4000 level range. Inbound Exchange students can take courses from across majors/disciplines. - You will work with your Seattle University Academic Advisor on your course preferences and registration. - Note: Courses from the School of Law, Graduate courses, and certain Undergraduate Programs (Diagnostic Ultrasound, Matteo Ricci Institute, Nursing, University Honors, and New and Continuing Studies) are not available. - Please note that some of the courses are only offered in particular quarters and/or have pre-requisite requirements.
Course Registration	Course registration is done by your assigned academic advisor. Prior to each quarter, you will discuss your course preferences with your academic advisor. If you choose to change courses, you can do so by asking your academic advisor: Albers School of Business & Economics: David Carter College of Arts & Sciences: Kirstin Urban College of Science and Engineering: Hallie Hominda
Transcript	Students will have to submit a request for their Seattle University transcript to be sent to their home university. Transcripts are issued by the Registrar's Office and should be requested once grades are posted, approximately one week after finals. Transcripts are available in Electronic and Printed via the Office of The Registrar (https://www.seattleu.edu/office-of-the-registrar/transcripts/). We recommend that students request several physical copies for their own record for future use.
Grading System	Seattle University adopts a 4.0 grading system https://www.seattleu.edu/office-of-the-registrar/grades/

Housing
On-Campus Housing	https://www.seattleu.edu/life-at-seattle-u/housing-dining/ Exchange Students are required to stay in On-Campus housing. Residence hall housing options include single, double, triple rooms, apartment style living, and intentional living communities. Prices vary greatly according to housing options and amenities Application Housing and Residence Life housing applications open the following dates: - Fall – April 1st - Winter – mid Nov - Spring – mid Feb All rooms in the traditional residence halls have one twin XL bed, wardrobe, desk and chair per student in the living space. There is also a sink and mirror in the room along with a microwave/mini-refrigerator combination. Each individual residence hall may have other amenities that are listed on the specific building page in the Residences section. Linens are not included.

Off-Campus Housing	Exchange students are only granted exemption from this policy with a formal written request. As the experience of studying abroad can be short, the full immersion into the US university system/Seattle University is the purpose of the experience. The only acceptable Off-Campus housing which are privately owned and managed property for Seattle U students are The Douglas and Vi Hilbert Residence Hall, which are located adjacent to campus. However, both options require applicants to sign a 12-month lease. It would be the student's responsibility to find a sub-leaser for the months they are not in Seattle.
