EVENT SALES

EATING ON CAMPUS

You are welcome to pay at the door for meals in our Chartwells operated Cherry Street Market, located in the Student Center. An All-You-Care-to-Eat venue includes various options, including the Thrive 9 station (which avoids the nine largest food allergens). Grab-n-Go options may be offered as well. Hours vary from week to week and will be posted.

SUMMER TEMPERATURES

Seattle is famous for its rain, but visitors are often pleasantly surprised to find that most of our summer days are warm and sunny! Although the average summer temperatures are in the low 70s (F), at times temperatures can reach upward of 90°F. Residence halls and many campus buildings do not have air-conditioning. Each room has a box fan to help keep guests cool. Please do not move the fan from the room.

GUEST CARD

The plastic card that you received at check-in is your Guest Card and it is programmed with door and elevator access for your residence., as well as access to the Student Center. Replacement cards may be purchased at your residence hall front desk for a fee of $25 + tax. After hours, report lost Guest Cards to Public Safety at 206-296-5990.

OVERNIGHT GUEST INFORMATION: A to Z

ALCOHOL

Only those guests 21 years of age and older are permitted to consume alcoholic beverages in private rooms of residences only. Alcoholic beverages may not be consumed in lounge areas of residence halls or anywhere else outside private rooms.

ANIMALS

Animals are generally prohibited in all campus buildings. Exceptions to this general prohibition include animals that qualify as “service animals” under the Americans with Disabilities Act and animals considered “emotional support animals” under the Fair Housing Act. Animals that qualify as “service animals” under the Americans with Disabilities Act are generally allowed in campus buildings. Animals that qualify as “emotional support animals” are generally prohibited from all campus buildings, with the limited exception that they may be allowed in campus residence halls in certain circumstances as a reasonable accommodation for a disability. “Service animals” and “emotional support animals” must meet all requirements for such animals under university policy, including appropriate documentation from a healthcare provider explaining the need for the animal as well as appropriate documentation regarding the animal’s training and health history. Please inquire further with the Front Desk if anyone in your Program plans to bring such an animal on campus.

BUSINESS SERVICES

SUpercopy, our on-campus copy service provider, is located on the lower level of the James C. Pigott Pavilion for Leadership and offers full-service copying, mailing (including USPS and FedEx), and bulk printing. Call 206-296-6117 for more information.

SUpercopy Hours:

Monday – Thursday	8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
Fridays	8 a.m. to 2:45 p.m.

GUEST CARD

Your Guest Card is programmed with residence building and residential floor/elevator access. Replacement cards may be purchased at your front desk for a fee of $25 + tax. Cards must be returned at check-out or the replacement fee will be assessed.

HOUSEKEEPING

You will receive service once a week on a pre-arranged schedule, which will be given to you. Sheets/pillowcases/towels and trash/recycling receptacles must be placed outside of your room on the date arranged and a fresh linen packet will be placed outside the door for you. Trash/recycling receptacles that are left outside the door will be emptied.

KEYS

Your room key is exclusive to you and will open your room. Your room key must be returned at check-out in the packet in which it was provided. Failure to return your key to the desk at which it was issued by the end of the official program check-out day will result in a fee of $175 + tax to change the room lock. Keys left in rooms instead of being returned to the appropriate desk will be listed as “lost” and the fee will be assessed.

QUIET HOURS

Noise levels in rooms, halls, and common spaces must be lowered to a non-disruptive level between 10 p.m. and 7 a.m.

FANS

Residence halls and many campus building do not have air-conditioning. A box fan should be in your room when you check-in. Please contact the front desk if it is not in the room.

LAUNDRY

Bluetooth-operated laundry facilities are available in the basement of Campion Hall. Laundry facilities are now paid using PayRange, a smartphone app (downloadable on the App Store or Google Play) that allows you to connect via Bluetooth to each machine and pay on your phone. If you have any questions about this, please ask the service desk.

LOUNGES

Lounges are located throughout Campion Hall and usually have a TV and DVD player. Remote control units can be checked out at the front desk with a valid ID as collateral.

MAIL

Mail is delivered to the residence halls Monday through Friday. Should you wish to receive mail while here, please be sure it is addressed as follows:

Your name
